Hello Parents,

We're through the very hectic part of our school year and now entering the "graceful exit" portion of the year. Immediate items on our school calendar include our final exams, end of year trip, course assessments, clean-up, etc. Final Exams begin next Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. Please help us to make sure your student is prepared as possible by making sure he/she is putting in the necessary study time for each of their courses. As a reminder, Finals make up 20% of a student's semester grade.

There are several attachments as part of this newsletter. These attachments include: parent hours, summer school offerings and enrollment form, and End of the Year Trip details. Please look through this important information and contact me in the office if you have any questions.

Assuming your child has re-enrolled and your account is cleared, I will be meeting with your student in the coming days to discuss his 2010-2011 schedule. We are still waiting to decide upon a few electives and whether or not we will be able to offer them for next year. But, overall, enrollment is doing fine and I'm thankful for this.

I thank you for your continued support of our little Christian high school. I particularly thank all of our senior families/students who will be leaving us after two, three, or four successful years together. I look forward to a wonderful night at graduation where they embark on God's new phase in their lives.

In Christ,

Lucas Fitzgerald
Pacific Lutheran
