

Did you Know?

- | Pacific Lutheran High School is a WASC-accredited 9th-12th grade high school located in downtown Torrance
- | Pacific Lutheran High School has provided South Bay area students a college-preparatory education for the past fifteen years
- | Jesus Christ is proudly taught to students each day in Theology classes and that a Christian worldview is daily brought to all students
- | Pacific Lutheran High School offers a full complement of C.I.F. Athletics and that the girls' volleyball team won the C.I.F. championship in 2009
- | The top 4% of PLHS graduating seniors are guaranteed University of California admission and that last year's school valedictorian was accepted to U.C. Berkeley and U.C.L.A.
- | The statement I hear most from those appreciating our school is that it is a family
- | The school has free after school study hall each day supervised by teachers volunteering their time
- | The average class size for students is fifteen
- | The school has a computer donation program for all students and/or school families needing computers at home
- | The school takes camping trips, visits the Grand Canyon and goes house boating together throughout the school year
- | There are no sports fees, book fees, or uniform fees tacked on to PLHS school families' tuition (There is an annual enrollment fee of $500.00)
- | The school has a National Honor Society Chapter and Honors/AP courses for high-achieving students
- | PLHS faculty tracks students progress through standardized testing (ITED and PSAT) and through examining student work in its staff and department meetings
- | Approximately $30,000 in student financial aid was awarded to students for the 2010-2011 school year
- | You are welcome to come by our school, visit us on the web (www.pacificlutheranhigh.com) or call the school principal on his cell phone (714) 488-4182 if you'd like to hear more about our school family.

Sincerely,

Lucas Fitzgerald, Principal